NUMB. 1626

The Daily Gazetteer.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4. 1740.

N°. 1624.

Vienna, Aug. 27. N. S.

THE following is the Account of the Turkiſh Ambaſſador's Publick Entry into this City on the 23d Inſtant.

1. Sixteen Dragoons, with ſome Huſſars.

2. Twenty-one Grenadiers of the Guards.

3. The Led Horſes of the Officers of the Carabineers.

The Carabineers themſelves with their Officers.

A Choir of Muſicians dreſs'd in Blue with Silver Lace.

The Burgomaſters and other Magiſtrates of Vienna, in Cloaths of various Colours, ſome lac'd, and others embroider'd with Gold or Silver.

The Officers of the City Companies, and their Ladies.

A great Number of Domeſticks, in very fine Liveries.

The Led Horſes of the Prince d'Averſperg and Count de Wurmbrand, the Emperor's Commiſſioners.

A Company of Turks, follow'd by ſome of the Horſes, which are a Preſent from the Grand Signior to the Emperor.

Another Company of Turks, with the reſt of the Horſes finely accouter'd with Houſings embroider'd with Gold, and every Horſe led by two Peaſants. The Turks who walk'd before and behind made great Noiſe, according to Cuſtom.

Two Horſe-Tails carry'd in Ceremony, between which there march'd 73 Freed Men ſet at Liberty in Conſequence of the Peace.

Seven Agas, or Turks of Diſtinction, dreſs'd after the Green Regimentals, with their Swords in their Hands.

The AMBASSADOR, riding on one of the Emperor's Horſes, with ſtately Accoutrements. He was dreſs'd in a Scarlet Robe lin'd with Ermin, and richly embroider'd with Gold. He had upon his Head a Turban, with a Plume of Feathers adorn'd with precious Stones; and he carry'd in his Hand a Sort of Fan or Umbrella of Feathers.

The Prince and Count, the Commiſſioners above-mention'd, marching on each Side.

Some Officers of the Janizaries marching in the ſame Line as the Commiſſioners, or rather a little before them.

A Body of Spahis, or Turkiſh Horſe, under the Command of a Baſha.

Thirty-ſix Turkiſh Officers, two and two, each carrying a Lance.

Thirty Water Bearers, with their Chiefs at their Head.

A Band of Turkiſh Muſick cloſed the March with very agreeable Melody.

The Ambaſſador's Baggage follow'd at ſome Diſtance, together with his Camels, to the Number of 60, which were cover'd with Red Houſings. All the Miniſter's Retinue was very ſpruce; and among the reſt there were 15 Young Turks, who were magnificently dreſs'd, and mounted upon very beautiful Horſes. The Ambaſſador and his Retinue are lodg'd in the Suburb of St. Leopold, where they have eight of the biggeſt Houſes in that Quarter. The Maſters of Coffee-houſes, or other Publick Houſes, are ordered to be careful to prevent any Quarrels with them, and to ſhut up their Doors at 9 o'Clock at Night, after which Hour all Manner of Perſons are forbid to appear in the Streets: Which Injunction has been ſignified in particular to the Heads of Families, and ſuch as keep a good Number of Servants: And, indeed, conſidering the diſſolute Behaviour of the Turks in all Places on the Road, 'tis impoſſible to be too much upon the Guard in this Reſpect. The Prince Royal of Poland will ſet out for Dreſden, after the Ambaſſador has had his Publick Audience. It was intended, that the Ambaſſador, after the Ceremony of his Entry, would have made ſome Scruples to enter, and the Emperor's Commiſſioners to the Stair-caſe of his Palace; but he did it with a Grace, and ſaluted them at the ſame Time a proper Compliment. It is obſerv'd, that at the Beginning of his Entry he went ſometimes a little before, and at other times a little behind thoſe Commiſſioners; from whence ſome thought he did it for the Purpoſe, that they ſhould not be upon a Level with him; but the Truth of the Matter is, that being mounted on a Horſe which the Emperor ſent him out of his Stables, according to Cuſtom, and which was exceeding mettleſome, he had much ado to manage the Beaſt, and was therefore oblig'd to ſend for his own, which was more gentle, and with whoſe Paces he was better acquainted. The 8 Companies of the Burghers who aſſiſted at the Publick Entry had a Preſent ſent them from the Emperor two Days ago, of 50 Veſſels of Wine, each containing 80 Quarts, and a Tumbler of Silver gilt, value 100 Ducats: And Yeſterday the ſaid Officers went to Court, and had the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand.

AMERICA.

Boſton in New-England, July 1. Yeſterday his Excellency the Governor made the following Speech to both Houſes of the General Aſſembly:

Gentlemen of the Council and of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

ALTHO' at the firſt Opening of this Seſſion, I earneſtly * recommended to you the doing every thing in your Power to encourage the Expedition his Majeſty is engag'd in againſt ſome of the Settlements of the King of Spain in the Weſt Indies, yet having receiv'd (the 28th inſtant) his Majeſty's additional and very particular Inſtructions in this important Affair, I ſhall order them to be communicated to you; wherein you will find this Deſign ſo wiſely concerted for the Honour of his Majeſty's Crown, and with ſo tender a Regard to his American Plantations, and from the Succeſs whereof this Province may reap ſuch great Advantages; that it leaves me no Room to doubt of your acting with the utmoſt Alacrity and Zeal for his Majeſty's Service in this Article in every thing the King has recommended and may juſtly expect from you: And as the Year is far advanc'd, your Conſultations and Doings herein muſt be with all poſſible, prudent Diſpatch.

As I am inform'd of ſome Veſſels hovering about our Harbours and thoſe of the neighbouring Colonies, which are ſuſpected to be come for Proviſions to ſupply the Subjects of Spain, I wiſh this Aſſembly might paſs ſome effectual Act for preventing any thing of ſo pernicious and fatal Conſequence.

I have only further to ſay, That you cannot give a greater Inſtance of your Loyalty and Duty to the King, nor in any thing more recommend yourſelves to his Royal Grace and Favour, than by putting in practice all the Meaſures in your Power for raiſing and ſending away the Troops to be raiſed in this Province, and further to do what in you lies to prevent all Commerce or Supplies to the Subjects of the King of Spain, the declared Enemies of his Majeſty's Crown and Dominions.

June 30. 1740.

J. BELCHER.

WHereas his Majeſty, by his Inſtructions to his Excellency the Governor, recommended to him, to engage ſuch Perſons within this Province, in the preſent Expedition againſt the Spaniſh Dominions in America, both for the Tranſport and Land-ſervice, as at any time have been reſident in, or have a particular Knowledge of the Spaniſh Ports, Coaſts, or Settlements in the Weſt Indies, and to aſſure ſuch as are able Pilots for the ſaid Coaſts, that their Service ſhall meet with all ſuitable Encouragement:

All Perſons qualified for his Majeſty's Service as above-mentioned, who are willing to engage therein, are deſired to offer themſelves to the Governor and Council, by giving in their Names at the Secretary's Office, that ſo they may receive proper Encouragement.

Simon Froſt, Dep. Secr.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Auguſt 28. In 1588, when the Spaniſh Armada was diſperſed, two of their largeſt Ships were ſtranded on the Weſt Coaſts of Scotland, one of them was div'd for ſome Years ago, but the Sand being looſe, it came to a very little Account; the other, which was loſt near Portin-croſs, was laſt Week begun to be ſearch'd after by Sir Archibald Grant and Capt. Roe. The Country People had preſerved by Tradition the Spot pretty near where ſhe ſunk, and gave them all the Information they were able; Immediately the Divers went to work and ſwept for her, which they do thus; they have a long Line which they ſink with Leads, one End of the Rope is fix'd to one Boat and the other End to another, they row, and whatever interrupts them, the Diver goes down to make a Diſcovery; they ſoon happen'd on the Place where the Ship lay, which is ſcarce a Quarter of a Mile from the Shore, in ten Fathom and a Foul Water; Capt. Roe immediately went down and found the Veſſel to be very entire, to have a vaſt Number of Guns aboard, but to be full of Sand; the firſt thing he fix'd upon was a Cannon, which lay upon the Sand at the Head of the Ship, to this he fix'd his Tongs, which are made of ſtrong Bars of Iron, they are open when they are let down, and have Teeth which join into one another; how ſoon they are fix'd upon any thing, he gives the Signal, when they are made to ſhut, and the heavier the Subject the cloſer they hold; the Cannon was drawn up with a good deal of Difficulty; it meaſures full nine Foot, is of Braſs, greeniſh colour'd, but nothing the worſe; on the Bretch there is a Roſe, with an E on the one Side and an R on the other, with this Inſcription, Richard and John Philips, Brethren, made this Piece, Anno 1584. In all Probability they will recover moſt of what is valuable out of the Ship.

Sir WALTER RALEGH's History of the World is a Work of so vast a Compass, such endless Variety, that no Genius but one adventurous as his own, durst have undertaken the great Design. I do not apprehend any great Difficulty in collecting and common-placing an Universal History from the whole Body of Historians; that is nothing but mechanick Labour. But to digest the several Authors in such a Method, to take in all their Majesty, Strength, and Beauty, to raise the Spirit of meaner Historians, and to equal the Excellencies of the best, is Sir Walter's peculiar Praise. His Style is the most perfect, the happiest, and most beautiful of the Age he wrote in, majestic, clear and manly; and it appears every-where so superior, rather than unequal to his Subject, that the Spirit of Rome and Athens seems to be breathed into his Work.

The most Delightful Fragrant TINCTURE for the Breath, Teeth and Gums.

AT once using makes the BREATH most charmingly fine, sweet, and pleasant, the Teeth perfectly white, clean and beautiful, and is the most certain Cure for the SCURVY in the Gums in the World.

It infallibly preserves the Breath, Teeth and Gums in the utmost Beauty and Perfection, if they are no Ways defective; and if they are, immediately rectifies all their Defects; for the same Minute it is used it makes the most offensive Breath smell incomparably fine and charming, and in a short Time so effectually cures, that a disagreeable Breath without exception.

It instantly makes the blackest and most foul Teeth exactly white and delicately beautiful; infallibly preserves them from decaying, and those a little decay'd from becoming worse; absolutely cures the Scurvy in the Gums, be it ever so inveterate, causing the Flesh to grow up to the Teeth again when almost eaten quite away, and sufficiently fastens the Teeth to Admiration. It is to be used but a few Drops at a Time, is exceeding pleasant, and leaves a very grateful and delectable Flavour in the Mouth.

In a Word, for most delightfully perfuming, and effectually curing an ill-scented Breath, for immediately making the blackest Teeth most excellently white, certainly fastening them when loose, effectually preserving them from rotting or decaying, and infallibly curing the Scurvy in the Gums, it has not its Equal in the Universe, as all the Quality and Principal Gentry, who use it acknowledge.

It is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-shop, at the Sign and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.
